

Dear readers,

I am writing to say that it really upsets us when you all think we're the bad guys.

Every day, we work really hard on our farm. We get up early and spend ALL day looking after our precious animals. Then Mr Fox just comes along and STEALS them all! Do you think it's okay to steal? I don't! Mr Fox is a thief. He is the bad guy here!

Also, why is it okay for Mr Fox to kill animals but not for us to kill him? We only want to shoot him to protect our own animals. Don't you care about our poor defenceless little chickens? Do you want them to get savaged by a ferocious, angry fox?

Please stop calling us the bad guys and help us to catch this thief!
