

English in Year 3

Focus: Reading – Class Novel

- I can read and retrieve information from our class novel and comment on the writer's use of language.
- I can summarise what has happened.
- I can make inferences and predictions based on what I have read.
- I can link my writing to what I have read.

Focus: Narrative

- I can write to describe settings and characters.
- I can appreciate stories from different cultures.
- I can write a diary entry as a fictional character.
- I can use my imagination to write an alternative ending to 'Once in a lifetime'.

Focus: Non-Fiction

- I can write a clear set of instructions on 'How to build a water wheel'.
- I can write a non-chronological report on Fountains Abbey.
- I can write a newspaper report about the Victorians.
- I can create an advertisement including catchy slogans.
- I can write a recount.

Focus: Poetry

- I can write a poem in the style of Charles Causley.
- I can create a poem based on 'The tale of the custard dragon'.
- I can learn and perform 'The owl and the pussy cat'.

