

English in Year 6

Focus: Class Novel

- I can make predictions about what I have read.
- I can use evidence from a text to strengthen my ideas.
- I can use my inference skills to discuss how characters are feeling.
- I can develop my understanding of complex vocabulary.
- I use what I read to help me develop as a writer when choosing vocabulary and sentence structures.

Focus: Poetry

- I can engage in a range of poetry.
- I can create effective pieces of poetry.
- I can learn a poem off by heart and analyse the language used within it.

Focus: Fiction writing

- I can write purposeful pieces to entertain a particular audience.
- I can consider my language choices and how to engage my reader.

Focus: Non-fiction writing

- I can write purposeful piece to inform my audience.
- I can use my writing to persuade my audience.
- I can use my writing as a discussion point.

Focus: Writing independently

- I use what I have learnt when I write my own pieces.
- I use thesaurus thinking to develop my vocabulary choices.
- I recognise the different elements of the writing rainbow and how these can help me to develop as a writer.